GRIMBALL OF EDISTO ISLAND

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

Paul Grimball, an English merchant, came to the Province of South Carolina in Feb. 1682; on April 10, 1681, Lord Shaftesbury and two others of the Lords Proprietors, address a communication to the Governor and Council, containing among other things, a commission to grant 3000 acres of land to "Mr. Paul Grimball, Merchant bound for Ashley River to settle there."[1]

In March 1682/3 he had a warrant for land on Cooper River bounding on land already purchased by him from Samuel Boswood[2] and in October 1683, he received a warrant for 600 acres due him for arrival of self and servants; he became a Proprietor's deputy in 1683;[3] settled on Edisto Island, where in 1686 his house with that of Governor Morton, was sacked by the Spaniards[4].

He was Secretary of the Province by 1683 and in October 1688 was appointed Receiver General and Escheator;[5] was a member of the committee to consider the modification of the Fundamental Constitution in July 1687; was disqualified by Seth Sothell from holding office in 1690, and was sent to jail and forcibly dispossessed of the records intrusted to him because he would not deliver the seal used for granting lands;[6] Grimball in his petition to the Governor and Council[7] recites the outrages committed by Sothell and his followers, and among other things states that William Chapman, the constable at CharlesTown with seven others from Berkley County went to the petitioners house on "Edistoh" Island Colleton County "forty miles by water" on February 3, 1691, entered his house with clubs, frightening Mrs. Grimball and the family, making the search upon the pretence of hunting for public papers and records, from there they went to the house of Mr. John Hamilton "your Petr's sonn in Law" a mile distant, and searched his house under the same pretense.[8]

The Proprietors granted Grimball a new commission in May 1691.[9] In April 1693 they wrote to Col. Ludwell transmitting to Mr. Grimball a power to appoint and remove Judges or Sheriffs of the counties at pleasure; they also stated that Mr. Grimball complained that he was obliged to stay in town longer than is needful, and requested that the duties of his office be made as little irksome as possible.[10] The Proprietors wrote to Mr. Grimball June 28, 1695 concerning the appointment of Archdale as Governor, and Grimball in his will, proved February 20, 1696, requests that a ring be given to Gov. Archdale as a token of respect.

Paul Grimball made his will December 13, 1696, as Paul Grimball Esq; of Edisto Island, Colleton County; a full abstract was printed in this Magazine, vo. XI, page 55. He mentions his wife Mary, sons Thomas and John, daughter Providence Grimball, daughters Mary Hamilton and Ann Linkley; son-in-law Christopher Linkley; the lands mentioned in his will were on Edisto; 1600 acres to his wife for life, and then to his son, Thomas; 400 acres to his daughter Linkley; there is no mention of lands to any of his other children. He had formerly owned lands on Cooper river the plantation known later as Wraggs or Marshland,[11] but sold during his life time.

Mary Grimball, wife of Paul, mentioned several times in the records and Statutes at large as Madam Mary Grimball, was living in 1711, when she was made guardian of her grand-son Christopher Linkley,[12] but was dead by 1720, when her son Thomas made his will; Mary Grimball left a will but it is now missing.

Paul Grimball the first and his wife Mary had issue:

2. i. Mary Grimball, married to John Hamilton, deputy Secretary of the Province, and had three children by 1695, when John Hamilton of Edisto Island registered a stock mark for them; Hamilton was a member of the House of Assembly in 1696, and 1698, and is mentioned in 1696 as Capt. John Hamilton. There is some evidence that he was the John Hamilton who came out with Lord Cardross and William Dunlap, but this would have to be proved.[13] Mary Hamilton died before her husband, and he married next Dorothy ———, who administered upon his estate November 6, 1707; after his death she married Thomas Ogle of Edisto Island, survived him also, and died leaving a will dated 1719 which mentions among others, her son-in-law Paul Hamilton.[14]

Of the children of John Hamilton, only three are known to be by Mary Grimball: i. Mary Hamilton, born before 1695, married first about 1705, John Wilkins, who died in 1730, she then married Archibald Neal,[15] John Wilkins and Mary Hamilton had issue several children, among them Paul Wilkins, mentioned in the will of his uncle Paul Hamilton. ii. Paul Hamilton, born before 1695, married Martha Bower, daughter of William Bower and his wife Martha Hext; Paul Hamilton died about March 1738/9 when his will was proved, his wife had predeceased him; their children were Paul, John, Archibald, daughters Martha and Dorcas; Paul was a Tory, and died in England about 1799, leaving no issue; Dorcas and John seem to have died young, Martha married Rev. John McLeod, and Archibald (1736–1766) married Rebecca daughter of Ezekial Branford, and was the father of Paul Hamilton, Governor of S. C., and Secretary of the Navy. iii. Ann Hamilton, born before 1695; married first before 1713, David Loughton, no issue; married 2d. George Barnet, one daughter Ann Barnet; married 3d. before 1717, David Hext, and had five daughters[16]; her daughter Ann Barnet married in 1731, Charles Codner[17] and had Richard, born 1732, Grace, born 1742, married John Ash, Charles, born 1734, Sabina, born 1735, married William Elliott, Providence married 1761, Joseph Eddings, Ann.

3. ii Ann Grimball daughter of Paul and Mary, married first Christopher Linkley[18] who died in 1699, for in that year his Mother Mary Linkley, in England, gives power of attorney to collect a legacy left her by her son.[19] Christopher Linkley and Ann Grimball had at least one child, Christopher, a minor in 1706, when Lawrence Dennis and Thomas Grimball were appointed his guardians; this second Christopher Linkley married Sarah Jones and died before 1719, for his widow made her will in that year[20] mentioning children, but not by name; Christopher Linkley 3d. married Mary Holman in 1735[21] and died in 1740. Ann Grimball widow of Christopher Linkley, married second before 1699 Charles Odingsell, deputy secretary of the Province under Paul Grimball; their children, so far as known, were, 1, Mary married first Samuel Jones and had issue, married second Capt. Ebenezer Simmons, no issue 2, Ann Odingsell 1706–1754, married first 1724,

John Smith, an English merchant, and second Benjamin D'Harriett, also a merchant[22] no issue by either husband; 3, Charles Odingsell, minor in 1718, when his half-brother Christopher Linkley was appointed his guardian[23] died on a trip to Savannah about 1740 leaving issue, Charles, Mary, and possibly others.[24] Ann Grimball seems to have married for a third husband, Lawrence Dennis, who afterwards married her sister Providence.[25]

4. iii. Providence Grimball, daughter of Paul and Mary, unmarried when her father made his will in 1695; she married first Lawrence Dennis,[26] and second, November 25, 1733, Ribton Hutchinson; she had no issue. Lawrence Dennis left a will now missing, but from recitals, we find that he left land to Paul Grimball, his nephew by marriage.

Providence Hutchinson made her will 9 January, 1755, proved 27 February, 1756; mentioning many of her friends and relations; she speaks of her husband Ribton Hutchinson and marriage settlement with him; the Antopedo Baptist church, 400 Pounds, and her silver tankard. nephew John

Mrs. Providence Dennis afterwards mentions Benj. d'Harriett and his wife and nephew and niece. As we know that d'Harriett married Anne Odingsell, widow of John Smith, the explanation seem to be that Lawrence Dennis had first married Anne Odingsell, widow, sister of Providence Grimball, and thus Anne d'Harriett was his step daughter.

Jones, neices Elizabeth Baynard, and Providence Grimball "who lives with me" daughters of her nephew Paul Grimball deceased. Nephew Joshua Grimball; neice Mary Simmons now wife of Capt. Late nephew Paul Grimball and his eight children not named; Nephew Thomas Grimball and his four children [not named] Nephew Joshua and his five children; neice Rebecca Grimball; children of nephew Isaac Grimball deceased, all under age; neice Sabina Elliott, wife of William Elliott; three neices Ann Codner, Providence Codner, and Grace Codner; Mrs. Mary Baker, widow of Capt. Francis Baker; kinsman Thomas Hutchinson; nephew Benjamin D'Harriett, "mourning ring I had for my late husband" and 500 pounds; residue to all the children of three nephews, Paul Grimball Esq; deceased. Thomas Grimball, and Isaac Grimball deceased.

5. iv. John Grimball, mentioned in the will of his father; John Grimball, of Charlestown, Hatter, made his will 11 Feb. 1722/3, leaving James Ellis his sole executor; Benjamin Cotell to have all his hatmakers tools. Sons Samuel and John Grimball to have all his property if they come to Carolina within a year and a day;[27] the records show nothing further concerning John Grimball's descendants.

6. v. Thomas Grimball, son of Paul and Mary, and the ancestor of all the Grimball's of the name in South Carolina; he married first before 1707, Elizabeth, daughter of William Adams;[28] married second, August 8, 1722, Sarah, widow of William Pert, a Baptist minister;

no issue by this marriage; she married next, in 1724, Samuel Scriven, and after his death, Dr. George Smith, a son of the second Landgrave, and died in Philadelphia.

Thomas Grimball and his wife Elizabeth Adams has issue

7. i. Paul Grimball, died about 1750
8. ii. Thomas Grimball, died after 1783
9. iii. Joshua Grimball, died 1757

Son Paul, after death of Wife Sarah, plantation where testator lived, 1000 acres; to son Thomas, 500 acres on Port Royal island;

Son Joshua remaining part of the tract where he lived, situated on Burned House Creek; to son Isaac Grimball land on Edisto Island, 290 acres adjoining Lawrence Dennis and Thomas Parmenter, a grant from Gov. ST. HELENA'S PARISH REGISTER

Copied and arranged for printing by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL AND MABEL L. WEBBER

The register for St. Helena's parish which we are now printing, is a compilation, begun in 1752, by William Gough; the volume in which it was recorded is a large folio, bound in parchment; the first page is elaborately illuminated in colored floral designs, and ornate lettering which reads as follows:

"St. Helena Parish / P. Register Containing / the Marriages, Births, Baptisms / and Burials which have happened in the said Parish, being transcribed from the old Register & from the / private Minutes of the late Rev'd Lewis Jones Decd."

"Minister / Rev. Wm. Peasely / Church Wardens / , Mr. Andrew Bell / Mr. Wm. Waight [bad break here]

"Vestry Coll. Nath'l [Barnwell] / Coll. Tho's: [Wigg?] / Coll: M[ulryne ?] Capt: Jno: G [break] / Mr. Jno: [Barnwell ?] / Mr. Chas.——, Mr. ——"

Between the list of the wardens and the vestry is the Royal Coat of Arms, and just below it appears the following:

"Done at Beaufort in the 25th year of the / Reign of his Majesty George II, and is most / humbly inscribed unto the Revd: the minister, the church / wardens and Gentlemen of the Vestry and the other / the Gentlemen Freeholders of the Said Parish / by their most humble and oblg. Servant / William Gough, St. George, 1752."

The old register is in very bad condition; fortunately a copy was made over twenty-five years ago, and this copy is now the property of this Society.

The register is a rather complicated compilation, arranged in tabular form, running across the double page, and there is an elaborate system of abbreviations and cross references by numbers, too confusing and cumbersome to reproduce. Since it has not been practicable to reproduce the exact form of the original, the subject matter has been put into a new form; the copy is used, after having been carefully verified with the original, loaned by the parish for this purpose: Mr. Joseph W. Barnwell andMiss Webber have done the verifying, and have again checked the copy after the new compilation was made.

With the completion of the printing of the St. Helena register all of the Provincial Church of England registers, which now remain, will have been printed with the exception of the second part of St. Philip's register, beginning 1754. This Society has printed to date, St. Andrews, St. James Santee, and Christ Church besides a fragment in the Independent Congregational (Circular) Church. St. Thomas and St. Dennis, Prince Frederick's and the first part of St. Philips have been printed by others. The other parish registers have long been missing; in a few cases the minutes of the vestry remain where the registers are gone.

The William Gough who began the compilation, the form of which was used until the register was full, was born in London in 1703, and died in Beaufort in May 1758; he has the schoolmaster and auctioneer. The register records the usual details concerning his family; They seem to have come out to Georgia in 1733, and to have shortly after come over to Beaufort. There is no apparent connection between this William Gough and John Gough, who came to Carolina from Barbadoes about before 1709, and left descendants here.
